

What is a personal statement?

A personal statement forms part of your UCAS application to study in higher education.

You get the chance to express your passion towards your chosen course and demonstrate your skills, experiences and interests. It is your opportunity to sell yourself in an academic setting to your chosen higher education providers.

What do universities want to see in an applicant?

- Passion

Law

- ▶ Provide evidence of situations where you have relied heavily on English skills to perform a task.e.g. EPQ?
- ▶ Any experiences where problem solving skills resulted in a situation being dealt with successfully and how these skills can help apply the law logically?
- ▶ Have there been any situations that relied heavily on your research skills?

Mathematics and secondary teaching

- ▶ Demonstrate your intellectual curiosity and the potential to achieve academically, professionally and personally.

Dear Prospective Student,

