

Prerequisites

Bachelor of Science: Public Health COMPLETER PLAN

Applicants with an associate of arts or an associate of science from an Alabama community college will be able to use their degree to satisfy all general education requirements for the program. Regardless of how many credits were earned during the course of the two-year degree, students will still be